Personal Profile

I am 43 years old and have been in vocational pastoral ministry for 25 years. I have been married to my beautiful wife, Nicole, for 14 years, and we have three young children. Nicole is a stay-at-home wife and mother.

Ministry Summary

I currently serve as the associate pastor at Faith Community Church and was ordained in 2009 by a council consisting of local pastors as well as seminary and Bible college professors. My ministry habits emphasize biblical instruction, discipleship, and biblical counseling for couples and in one-on-one settings. I have extensive experience shepherding all age groups within the church, ranging from children to senior citizens. I have consistently demonstrated that I meet the biblical qualifications for eldership, and I am encouraged by my senior pastor and elders as they have affirmed my calling and qualification to shepherd Christ's flock.

Ministry Goals

I have been called by Christ Jesus for the solemn responsibility of shepherding the flock of God that He purchased with His own blood (Acts 20:28). My chief goal is to glorify God, exalting Christ as Savior and Lord. In addition to this, my life's goal is to nurture the people of God in faith and help them grow in spiritual maturity.
