OBJECTIVE

To find a full-time pastorate where I can spend my life shepherding God's flock with faithful expository verse by verse preaching and teaching, evangelism, and by being a sacrificial leader who is accessible and transparent.

---

SKILLS

The Lord has blessed me with a love for His word and the ability to patiently and effectively communicate the truths therein. Whether I'm in the pulpit, a home Bible study, or preaching in the open air, it has been my joyous privilege to intentionally engage both the Church of Jesus Christ and the world with the transformative message of the Gospel.
