- I am growing more and more in being patient with other people and loving them.
- I am growing in my dependence on God's Word and the Holy Spirit.

MINISTRY CONVICTION

I believe a pastor's role is multi-faceted, all-absorbing, and divinely bestowed. I believe a pastor should be an overseer and protector of the church, a preacher of God's Word, a shepherd of the sheep, and a trainer of workers of the gospel. I believe a pastor should be busy fulfilling all his roles with genuine heart that stems from fear and love for God. I believe a married pastor must fulfill all his pastoral roles while fulfilling his husbandry and fatherly roles with same genuineness and diligence. Therefore, I believe a pastor's role can be successfully fulfilled only by a man who has a vibrant, deepening, varying, affectionate, and dependent relationship with the living triune God. I believe a pastor should do the work of ministry with the plurality of elders who share the biblical convictions and philosophy of ministry following the pattern revealed in the New Testament.
